Plenty of Roanoke cleaning companies cover Cave Spring from somewhere across town. The Happy Housekeepers is actually based here, on Starkey Road in the Cave Spring area of southwest Roanoke County. For homeowners and businesses in the neighborhood, that means a cleaning service with local roots, a short drive to your door and a team that knows the area well.

Your Neighborhood Cleaning Company

Cave Spring has a little of everything: established neighborhoods with mature trees, newer subdivisions off Route 221 and Starkey Road, and a busy commercial stretch along Electric Road with offices, shops and professional practices. The Happy Housekeepers serves all of it. Residential clients can choose one-time, weekly, bi-weekly or monthly visits, while local businesses can use the company's Corporate Clean division for janitorial and commercial cleaning on a daily, weekly, bi-monthly or monthly schedule.

Homes in the area often have features that need regular attention, including ceiling fans, wide window sills, blinds and long runs of baseboard. Those are all part of the standard residential checklist, along with dusting and polishing furniture, vacuuming carpets, mopping hard floors and complete kitchen and bathroom cleanups. When you want more, the team offers spring and fall cleanings, inside-oven and refrigerator cleaning, wall and woodwork washing, light fixture cleaning and basement cleaning.
