A bridal shower is the first real event of the wedding season, and finding the right space can be harder than it sounds. Living rooms fill up quickly, restaurants come with time limits, and church halls do not always fit the mood. Hosts in Cloverdale and the surrounding Roanoke Valley have another option at Bailey Wick unique wedding venues near me Farm Wedding & Event Venue in Fincastle.

Bridal showers are among the events reviewers mention when describing the farm, and the space suits them well. The barn is open and bright with tall ceilings, so you can arrange a long brunch table, a gift station and a photo corner with plenty of room to spare. Heating and air conditioning keep the space comfortable whether your shower is in March or September.

Hosting the shower at the farm also gives the bride a preview of what her wedding venue could look like, or simply an excuse to spend an afternoon in the countryside with her favorite people. The covered porch, with rocking chairs and views toward the Blue Ridge Mountains, is an ideal spot for a mimosa toast or a group photo.
