Check the basics before paying: Kenyan registration, tourism authority licensing, insurance, and whether the guide is employed or freelance.

Ask for the vehicle type and year, and whether it is a pop-top van or a 4x4. Confirm park fees are included and named in writing.

Reviews help, but Helpful resources look for patterns rather than single complaints, and be wary budget masai mara safari of prices far below market. Request a contract with cancellation terms, inclusions and emergency contacts. Verification checklist is at %LINK%.
