Understanding the Hungarian Identity Card (Személyi Igazolvány)

In Hungary, the official identity card is referred to as the személyi igazolvány. Over recent years, Hungary has actually transitioned to a modern, biometric clever card. This card does more than simply prove identity; it frequently incorporates features for electronic signatures and can even function as a Medicare (TAJ) number holder or tax card, depending upon the specific issuance version.

Depending on citizenship status and residency rights, individuals living in Hungary will fall under one of a few classifications when looking for an ID.

Kinds of Applicants

Applicant Category Description Main Document Issued Hungarian Citizens People born in Hungary or holding confirmed Hungarian citizenship. National ID Card (Smart Card) EU/EEA Citizens People of the European Union or European Economic Area residing in Hungary long-lasting. Registration Certificate & & Address Card (ID equivalent for locals) Third-Country Nationals Non-EU/EEA nationals with irreversible or momentary residence licenses. House Permit Card (Acts as the main ID)

Where to Apply for a Hungarian ID Card

The application process can not normally be done online from scratch; applicants must visit a main federal government office in individual to have their picture taken and finger prints scanned (for biometric cards).

- Government Windows (Kormányablak): These are the main service hubs for administrative jobs in Hungary. People can walk in or book a consultation online through the central government scheduling website (Kormányablak Időpontfoglaló).
- Headquarters for Administrative and Electronic Public Services: For intricate cases or unique scenarios.
- Hungarian Consulates and Embassies: Hungarian citizens living abroad need to send their applications through their closest diplomatic mission.

Step-by-Step Application Process

Making an application Express Zkártya for the card follows a standardized procedure created to verify identity and capture biometric data.

1. Book an Appointment: While some workplaces accept walk-ins, wait times can be comprehensive. Booking a consultation at a regional Kormányablak is strongly suggested.
2. Gather Required Documents: Bringing the right paperwork avoids hold-ups. (See the checklist below).
3. Attend the In-Person Appointment:
    - A representative will evaluate the files.
    - A digital picture will be taken on-site (no need to bring physical passport pictures).
    - Fingerprints and a digital signature will be recorded (for candidates over a certain age).
4. Pay the Fee: Payment is usually made via credit card or money directly at the workplace terminal.
5. Track and Receive the Card: The card is typically made centrally and can either be sent by mail straight to the applicant's domestic address or picked up at the office where the application was submitted.

Needed Documentation Checklist

To guarantee a smooth application, applicants need to bring specific files. Missing a single paper can result in rejection and the requirement to reschedule.

- Proof of Identity:
    - An expired Hungarian ID card, or
    - A legitimate Hungarian passport, or
    - A birth certificate (especially for first-time applicants, such as minors).
- Proof of Citizenship (for newbie applicants):
    - A Hungarian citizenship certificate (állampolgársági bizonyítvány), if citizenship was just recently acquired or restored.
- Address Card (Lakcímkártya):
    - The main green-and-white card showing the candidate's legal residence in Hungary.
- Previous ID or Police Report:
    - If applying due to a lost or stolen card, an authorities report documenting the loss is typically needed.

Expenses and Processing Times

The Hungarian federal government structures costs based upon the type of application (first-time, renewal due to expiration, or replacement due to loss/damage).

Application Type Requirement Fee (HUF) Approximate Processing Time Newbie Issue Free of charge 8-- 20 days Renewal (Expiration) Free of charge (usually) 8-- 20 days Replacement (Lost/Stolen) Variable (Approx. 1,500-- 5,000 HUF) 8-- 20 days Expedited Processing Extra fee applies 1-- 3 days (Express)

Note: Fees are subject to regular legislative updates. It is always a good idea to examine the official Kormányablak site prior to the visit.

Special Considerations

1. Minors and Children

For kids under the age of 14, the existence of both moms and dads (or legal guardians) is typically required during the application procedure, in addition to the kid's birth certificate. Biometric fingerprinting is generally not needed for children under 12.

2. Call Changes

If an applicant has actually legally changed their name (e.g., through marriage or divorce), the change must initially be formally signed up in the Hungarian Registry of Births, Marriages, and Deaths before a brand-new ID card can be released showing the updated name.

3. Short-lived IDs

If an ID card is lost, taken, or ended and a private requirements instant recognition for travel or everyday life, the government workplace can issue a short-lived identity card (ideiglenes személyi igazolvány), which is printed on paper and legitimate for a brief, defined period.

Summary and Best Practices

Navigating the Hungarian ID card application process is uncomplicated provided one is adequately prepared. To make sure a hassle-free experience:

- Check Expiration Dates: Do not wait till the card expires to begin the renewal process. Objective to use at least 30 days before expiration.
