What is the Limbo Casino Game?

Limbo is an instant-win casino game promoted largely by crypto-gaming websites like Stake. Inspired by the classic "Crash" mechanic, Limbo asks a simple concern: Can you guess how high the multiplier will go?

Unlike Crash, where players see a rocket or a line climb upward and by hand money out before it crashes, Limbo is a static game. Players choose a target multiplier before the round begins. The game then creates a random multiplier. If the produced multiplier is equivalent to or higher than the player's target, the bet wins. If it falls listed below the target, the bet loses.

How a Round Works:

1. Place a Bet: The gamer picks just how much money they desire to wager.
2. Set a Target Multiplier: The player chooses their preferred payout (e.g., 2x, 10x, 100x, or perhaps 1,000,000 x).
3. Roll/Spin: The gamer strikes the bet button.
4. The Result: The system generates a random number. The UI shows whether the target was met and determines the payout instantly.

Understanding the Mathematics and RTP

To an observer, Limbo may appear like pure guesswork, however it is deeply rooted in possibility. The majority of trusted online casinos provide Limbo with an extremely high Return to Player (RTP)-- normally around 99%. This means the house edge is a razor-thin 1%.

The mathematical relationship in Limbo is inversely proportional: The greater your target multiplier, the lower your win possibility. Conversely, the lower your target, the greater your possibilities of winning.

Limbo Probability Breakdown

To give players a clearer image of how danger and reward scale in Limbo, think about the following statistical breakdown (assuming a standard 1% house edge):

Target Multiplier Win Probability (%) Example Potential Payout on a £ 10 Bet 1.01 x 98.01% £ 10.10 2.00 x 49.50%
£ 20.00 5.00 x 19.80% £ 50.00 10.00 x 9.90% £ 100.00 50.00 x 1.98% £ 500.00 100.00 x 0.99% £ 1,000.00
1,000.00 x 0.099% £ 10,000.00
