- Crazy Time: Appears 1 time on the wheel. Sets off the supreme bonus round.

The Top Slot Feature

Above the main money wheel sits a smaller sized, two-reel slot device called the Top Slot. With every spin of the main wheel, the Top Slot also spins automatically. It generates a random multiplier and sets it with a random bet area (either a number or a reward game).

If the main wheel lands on the specific matching segment, the payment for that number or the multiplier for that benefit round is improved accordingly. This is where huge payouts can begin to form before gamers even reach a bonus round.

The Four Extravagant Bonus Rounds

The true heart and soul of Crazy Time are its 4 bonus rounds. These mini-games transport players away from the primary wheel and into immersive, computer-generated perk environments.

1. Coin Flip

The most basic of the four perk rounds, Coin Flip uses a fast and uncomplicated mechanic.

- How it works: A coin with a red side and a blue side is positioned in a mechanical flipper. Each side is assigned a random multiplier before the flip.
- The Outcome: Whichever color deals with upward when the coin lands figures out the multiplier applied to the player's stake.

2. Money Hunt

Cash Hunt is an interactive shooting gallery design video game where gamers need to make a split-second choice.

- How it works: An enormous screen displays 108 random multipliers hidden behind various signs (such as a cactus, a target, a chef's hat, etc).
- The Outcome: Players are provided a brief countdown to objective and fire an on-screen cannon at a sign of their choice. As soon as the timer ends, all symbols expose their concealed multipliers, and the gamer wins whatever value was behind their picked target.

3. Pachinko

Motivated by the standard Japanese arcade video game, the Pachinko benefit round is everything about gravity and suspense.

- How it works: The presenter reaches a platform and drops a puck down a big board filled with physical pegs. At the bottom of the board are numerous multiplier worths, alongside a "DOUBLE" zone.
- The Outcome: The puck bounces down the board and lands in one of the multiplier slots. If it lands on "DOUBLE," all multipliers at the bottom of the board double in value, and the speaker drops the puck a second time. This can repeat up until the maximum multiplier limit is reached.

4. Crazy Time

The holy grail of the game, Crazy Time takes players behind a huge red door into a surreal, Alice-in-Wonderland-style virtual world.

- How it works: Players are confronted with a huge virtual wheel featuring 64 sectors filled with large multipliers and "DOUBLE" or "TRIPLE" wedges. Before the wheel spins, gamers need to choose among three flippers (Green, Blue, or Yellow).

- The Outcome: The presenter presses a big red button to spin the wheel. Whichever segment lines up with the gamer's selected flipper determines their reward. If the wheel arrive on "DOUBLE" or "TRIPLE," all multipliers on the wheel are doubled or tripled, and the wheel spins again. This procedure can repeat, possibly resulting in the game's optimum advertised payment of 20,000 x the bet.

Strategies and Approach

While Crazy Time is essentially a game of chance governed by random number generators (RNG) and physical physics, gamers typically use different tactical techniques to handle their bankroll and maximize their entertainment time.

- The Low-Volatility Approach (The Safety Net):
 - Focusing heavily on numbers 1 and 2, that make up a significant portion of the wheel. This strategy yields frequent, smaller sized wins that assist sustain the gamer's balance for a longer duration.
- The Bonus Hunter Approach:
 - Wagering solely or primarily on the 4 benefit rounds (Coin Flip, Cash Hunt, Pachinko, and Crazy Time). Since these segments appear less frequently on the wheel (only 9 sections overall), this approach involves longer droughts in exchange for access to the game's primary function destinations.
- The Balanced Approach:
 - Spreading small bets throughout both numbers and bonus rounds to ensure eligibility for the perk mini-games while maintaining a cushion from routine number hits.
