

Mudjacking is one of the specialty services offered by JLB Basement Waterproofing & Foundation Repair LLC, used to level sunken concrete slabs such as driveways, sidewalks and patios. The process involves foundation repair injecting a specialized mixture beneath the sunken slab, raising it back to its original level position without the cost and disruption of full slab replacement. Mudjacking is a practical option for homeowners dealing with uneven concrete caused by soil settling, a common issue given the soil conditions throughout Des Moines and the wider metro area.
