At its core, Limbo is a specialized, stripped-down crash-style betting game. Influenced by the traditional game show idea of "how low can you go?", crypto Limbo flips the script: instead of going under a bar, gamers bank on how high a multiplier can go.

Gamers set a target multiplier (e.g., 2x, 50x, and even 1,000,000 x) and position a wager using cryptocurrency. The game engine then produces a random number. If the produced multiplier amounts to or higher than the player's chosen target, the bet is won. If the result fails, the stake is lost.

Unlike conventional slots or complicated card video games, Limbo strips away confusing rules, paylines, and sidetracking animations. It presents a tidy, minimalist user interface where the primary focus is pure possibility and danger management.

4. Struck Roll/Bet: The random number generator (RNG) performs, producing an outcome.
5. Win or Lose: The outcome is shown instantly. If the result exceeds the target, the payout is calculated as $\text{Wager} \times \text{Target Multiplier}$.
